THE South-Carolina GAZETTE.

March 16, 1752. [NUMB. 929.]

FRANCFORT, December 9.

SEVERAL merchants of this city, who uſed to receive the Engliſh merchandize by way of Hamburgh and Bremen, have wrote to their correſpondents at London, that as ſoon as a free port ſhall be eſtabliſhed in Holland, they propoſe to make uſe of this new way of obtaining the goods they ſhall want.

Duſſeldorp, Dec. 6. Within theſe few days paſt, ſeveral barks, full of people from Swiſſerland, paſſed by this city, upon the Rhine, in order to embark for Nova-Scotia and Engliſh colonies in America.

London, Dec. 7. We hear that the bounty on corn exported will be continued.

On Tueſday laſt Mr. George Bridges was examined by the right hon. the lords of the admiralty, concerning his experiment on ſundry pieces of plank, to prevent worms eating ſhips bottoms, when their lordſhips came to a final reſolution, which was to have another proof made on a veſſel bound to the Weſt-Indies.

Hague, Dec. 13. We learn from Madrid, that the Cardinal infant will very ſpeedily lay aſide the purple; and that it is believed, ſome new eſtabliſhment will be found for his royal highneſs. But as this ſeems to be grounded on certain viſits paid by a foreign miniſter to the Queen Dowager, it may, as many advices from thence have already done, prove a groundleſs conjecture.

Leghorn, Nov. 26. The emperor has ſent orders to augment the marine of this ſtate, in conſequence of which a new man of war is going to be built at Porto-Ferajo, which will make the fifth of which the navy of Tuſcany is compoſed.

Utrecht, Dec. 15. According to the laſt advices from Boiſleduc, there is no likelihood of proceeding before the ſpring, to the execution of the plan for eſtabliſhing a more direct communication between Liege and this city, and it ſeems a matter of diſpute, whether it will be beſt to make it by means of a cauſey, or by digging a canal as far as Eyndhoven. Several people argue in favour of a cauſey, and ſeveral in favour of a canal, but the latter ſeems to deſerve the preference, becauſe in time of war it ſerves to hinder the progreſs of an army, which the former facilitates.

London, Dec. 10. Laſt night an extraordinary meſſenger was diſpatched to his excellency the earl of Albemarle at the court of Verſailles, as was likewiſe another to his excellency Benjamin Keene, Eſq; at the court of Madrid.

We hear from good hands, that the government has contracted with Signor Bardaſcione, principal builder of the Pope's feluccas and galleys at Civita Vecchia, for four new men of war of 64 and 70 guns; it having been lately diſcover'd that as we now greatly ſurpaſs the Italians in muſical compoſitions, ſo they as much out do us in the arts of navigation and naval architecture.

It is remarkable, that there has not been an article from Paris in our gazette ſince the account of the birth of the duke of Burgundy.

We hear that an expreſs arrived a few days ago from Paris, with orders for ſuſpending the rejoicings intended to have been made here on account of the birth of the duke of Burgundy; in conſequence of which, ſome of the decorations, which were made at the Opera-houſe upon this occaſion, have already been taken down. Various conjectures are formed upon this piece of news, but the public in general are ſtrangers to the real cauſe.

The right hon. the lord Anſon has purchaſed the large and fine eſtates of the late earl of Yarmouth in the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, for which his lordſhip has given ninety-two thouſand five hundred pounds.

The men of war at Portſmouth are ordered to be got ready for ſea; and it is ſaid, that ſeveral others will ſoon be put into commiſſion.

Laſt week was entered at the cuſtom-houſe from on board the Charming Martha, Capt. Leſlie, 496 lb. weight of raw ſilk, the growth of Georgia, under the teſtimonials required by the late act of parliament for encouraging the growth and culture of ſilk in his majeſty's dominions in America; which raw ſilk, by the ſaid act, was imported duty free.

They write from Leghorn, that notwithſtanding they had employed ſome very able ſtateſmen to convince the duke of Modena, that it was againſt his true intereſt to have a ſea port in his kingdom, his Serene highneſs continues ſtill obſtinate; ſo that they ſhall be obliged to take what meaſures they can to prevent the trade of his ſubjects interfering with theirs.

Our correſpondent at Amſterdam aſſures us, that they have appointed a ſtanding committee of merchants in that city, to ſollicit the project for the improvement of commerce, ſo well known to the world by the name of the prince of Orange's legacy.

We hear that the French ambaſſador has had orders to poſtpone the celebration of the duke of Burgundy's birth, on account of a very great perſon's refuſing to honour the entertainment with his preſence.

Laſt Sunday his majeſty, the Duke de Mirepoix, the French ambaſſador, and general Wall, the Spaniſh ambaſſador, had a long conference in the drawing room St. James's.

Bourdeaux, Dec. 10. Yeſterday ſeveral ſhips arrived here from St. Domingo, and brings a full confirmation of the dreadful hurricane which happened in the night, between the 9th and 10th of September laſt, and has done incredible damage to the houſes, ſugar works, &c. a great number of which are laid level with the ground: The ſugar canes, coffee and cotton are very much hurt, eſpecially the laſt, and the crop of indico, which was almoſt ready to cut, is entirely deſtroyed, which is a great loſs to the planters, as the culture of this laſt article has unfortunately been ſpoiled three times ſucceſſively, and little or none left in this iſland. There are five loaden ſhips entirely loſt, and great deſtruction all over that iſland; and from Martinico they repreſent themſelves ſtill worſe if poſſible, moſt of the windmills and ſugar works being totally deſtroyed, and their cotton crop entirely ruined.

London, Dec. 12. It is ſaid, that the creations and promotions which have been talk'd of, will take place before the houſes meet after the holidays; and it is alſo reported, that ſeveral ſchemes of œconomy, and propoſitions for the reduction of the public expence, will be brought upon the carpet at the ſame time.

London, Dec. 14. The hon. the Eaſt-India company have ordered the Lapwing to be fitted out as a man of war. She is to carry 40 guns, to be mann'd in proportion, and is to ſail for the Eaſt-Indies to protect their trade againſt pirates.

We learn from Stockholm, that the ſtates have approved the encouragements that have been hitherto given for new inventions, that facilitate the cultivation of Arable lands, and have recommended the like practice for the future, without making any diſtinction between natives and ſtrangers; and have likewiſe directed, that where there is any probability of ſucceſs, experiments ſhall be made at the public expence.

Parma, Nov. 30. According to all advices we receive from Corſica, the diſturbances and confuſion which have prevailed there, are likely to be renewed with greater vigor than ever.

Vienna, Dec. 8. Mr. Keith, the Britiſh miniſter, has acquainted the miniſtry, that the king of Great-Britain propoſes to viſit his electorate next April; which piece of news gives their Imperial majeſties great pleaſure. Soon after the arrival of his Britannick majeſty at Hanover, a congreſs will be held there by the miniſters of moſt of the courts of the Empire. Beſides the treaty which was lately ſo happily concluded, and by which the tranquility of Italy is ſo well ſecured, there is, it is ſaid, a no leſs important one on foot, which is to eſtabliſh the peace of the Empire upon a ſolid foundation. The Empreſs queen has ſent orders to pay off all the debts which her troops contracted in the low countries during the late war.

London, Dec. 17. On Sunday morning about 11 o'clock and not before, died that great ſcholar and politician, the right hon. Henry St. John, Eſq; lord viſcount Bolingbroke.

By the death of the right hon. the lord Bolingbroke, the antient ſeat at Batterſea, with the manor, and a large eſtate, deſcends to his nephew, the lord St. John, a young nobleman, now on his travels abroad. And

We

We hear that his lordſhip, by his laſt will, has left his library and manuſcripts to Mr. Mallet, and has appointed the honourable Mr Chetwynd, and Joſeph Taylor, Eſq; of Bridewell, his executors. He will be buried this evening privately at Batterſea, purſuant to his will.
